PROFILES

Todd Huff, sophomore, is a newcomer to the SJC stage. A Chemistry major with a minor in secondary education, Huff is playing the role of "Tripp." He hails from Bremen, IN, and was once named SJC General Chemistry Student of the Year. Other activities include Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, TRUMP, and the Science Olympiad Organizational Committee. He is also a Presidential Scholar. Huff is the son of Robert and Regina Huff.

A junior Mass Communications major, Joe Small is the stage manager for Saint Joe's latest production. He comes from Wheatfield, IN and is the son of Ed and Edna Small. Small is a TV Six Sportscaster (the College TV station), and a Radio DJ for 90.5 WPUM, the campus radio station.

Melissa Genova is playing the role of Frances, and this is her first time in a Saint Joe production. She is a freshman Music major from Dyer, IN. Her activities on campus are writing for the College newspaper, The Observer, and reviewing movies for Channel Six. She is the daughter of Michael and Emily Genova.

A native of Rossville, IN, Blaire Henley is playing the role of Meredith. She is in the middle of her third year at Saint Joe, working on a major in Chemistry. Henley is a Presidential Scholar, a member of the Show Choir, TRUMP, and Alpha Lambda Delta. She is the daughter of Jeff and Dottie Henley.

Courteny Coe, a junior majoring in Mass Communications, is playing the role of Tricia. Coe comes to us from Wataga, IL, and is the daughter of Robert and Dolores Costello. She is the Producer for the College TV station, a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, a DJ For 90.5 WPUM, and is the Treasurer for the Columbian Players.

Megan Bodnar, a senior Biology major, is playing the role of Georgeanne. She comes from Hobart, IN and is the daughter of Bill and Laura Bodnar. She has been a Resident Assistant for the past two years, is the President of Columbian Players, and is the team captain for the Mock Trial team.

Wendy Sidener is a sophomore Human Services major from Plainfield, IN, and she is playing the role of Mindy. Sidener's previous performances include "Guys and Dolls" in high school, and several shows with the Hendricks Civic Theatre, such as "Oliver," "Carousel," and "The Wizard of Oz." She was also in last year's "Princess Samantha's 56th Sultor Ball." Sidener is a member of the Color Guard, Alpha Lambda Delta, Habitat for Humanity, and the Gallagher Charitable Society.
